The Ascension of the Lord May 13, 2018

PROCLAIM THE GOSPEL

Today we celebrate one of the tenets of our creed: that the Lord ascended into heaven. From Mark's Gospel we hear the final words Jesus spoke to his disciples shortly before he ascended into heaven. Those were words of commissioning, no less real for us today than they were to the disciples then. We are called to "proclaim the gospel to every creature." For the vast majority of us, this means that we proclaim the gospel by the witness of our everyday lives. Treating others with dignity and respect, providing for those less fortunate than ourselves, being good stewards of the many gifts showered on us, coming together as God's family in worship and praise—these are all signs that the gospel has taken root in our lives.

WHAT IS YOUR/OUR MISSION?

We do not always think about it, but each of us has a mission, a purpose for our life, a call which only we can fulfill. The word "mission" might throw us off — some of us have spent hours at work or our parish working on a "mission statement." Sometimes, that work bears much fruit, as people have a clearer sense of the purpose of the organization. Sometimes, however, the process of writing a mission statement seems an exercise in futility. A lot of work goes into developing it, but that doesn't mean it actually directs action or progress. ©Catholic Life and Faith, 2018

PROCLAMA EL EVANGELIO

Hoy celebramos uno de los dogmas de nuestro Credo: que el Señor ascendió a los cielos. Del Evangelio de San Marcos escuchamos las últimas palabras que Jesús les dirigió a sus discípulos momentos antes de ascender a los cielos. Fueron palabras con un encargo, no menos real para nosotros que para los discípulos de entonces. Jesús nos encarga: "Vayan por todo el mundo y prediquen el Evangelio a toda criatura". Para la gran mayoría de nosotros, esto significa que proclamamos el Evangelio con el testimonio de nuestra vida diaria. Cuando tratamos a otros con dignidad y respeto, ayudamos a los menos afortunados que nosotros, actuamos corresponsablemente con los muchos dones que hemos recibido, y nos reunimos como familia de Dios para adorar y alabar al Padre –todas estas son señales de que el Evangelio ha echado raíces en nuestras vidas. © Copyright, J. Mother's Day from the Saints

If you ever feel distressed during your day, call upon Our Lady. Just say this simple prayer, "Mary, mother of Jesus, please be a mother to me now." I must admit, this prayer has never failed me. – Mother Teresa

In the evening when you go to sleep, hold your beads, doze off reciting them, do like those babies who go to sleep mumbling, "Mamma! Mamma!" – St. Bernadette

From Mary we learn to surrender to God's will in all things. From Mary we learn to trust even when all hope seems gone. From Mary we learn to love Christ her son and the son of God. – JPII
